Alec Rosenblum Named Strategic Capitol Consulting New General Counsel

St. Louis, Mo. - Today, Strategic Capitol Consulting, LLC (SCC) announced St. Louis based attorney Alec Rosenblum will join its team as general counsel. In this role, Rosenblum will lead the firm's legal, compliance, ethics, and corporate business services.

"Alec brings over a decade of legal and professional experience working across multiple industries and on a global scale. He is an accomplished legal strategist, litigator with a strong background in compliance, highly regulated industries and civil litigation. I look forward to working with him as he leads and develops our elite legal division," said SCC Partner Tom Robbins.

"I am humbled and excited to have the opportunity to lead SCC's new legal and corporate services division as the firm transitions to a fully-integrated business services and government affairs consulting firm," said attorney Alec Rosenblum.

Prior to joining SCC, Rosenblum resided in Israel and served as a consultant and grant writer for Tel Aviv based firm Eagle Point Funding. Prior to working as a global grant writer, he served as a data privacy attorney for BOTCOPY and was an associate in the civil litigation division at Rosenblum, Schwartz and Fry. Rosenblum earned his JD from Saint Louis University and his B.S. in Philosophy from San Diego State University.

Strategic Capitol Consulting is a fully-integrated, bipartisan public affairs firm specializing in federal, state and local government relations, strategic communications, business development, corporate and highly regulated industry advisory services. Founded by former Missouri House Speaker Steven Tilley, SCC is comprised of a talented team of strategists and lobbyists delivering for its clients in the public policy and business arenas.
